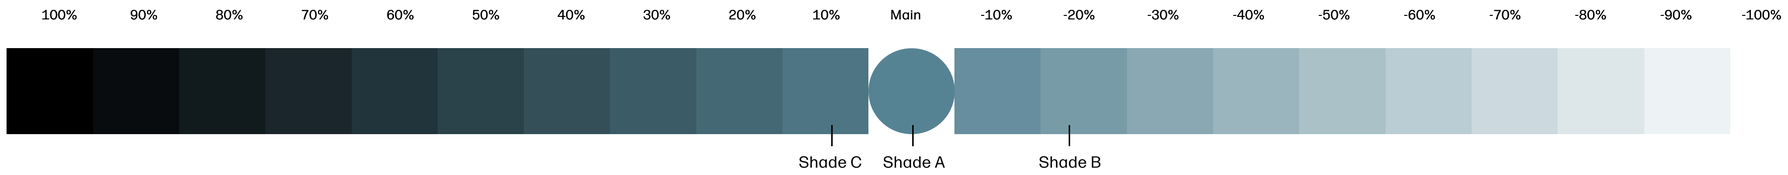
Highlighting Single Words with Power Storm

To ensure the legibility of the Power Storm color, specific shades have been defined according to application and corresponding medium.

Three Select Shades of Power Storm Variations for Use in Keywords



Shade A (Main)

Power Storm Shade A is used for text and buttons on a white background.

Background:
White
Button

Apply Power Storm Shade A to highlight keywords in titles and subtitles. Minimum text size: 10 pt.

4.1

Text contrast ratio result.

Values
HEX 568393

Shade B

Power Storm Shade B is used for highlighting keywords in titles and subtitles over images.

Use Shade B on darker photos.

Background:
Darker

Avoid sizes smaller than 14 pt. Minimum size: 10 pt.

5.0

Text contrast ratio result.

Values
HEX 789CA9

Shade C

Power Storm Shade C is used for highlighting keywords in titles and subtitles over images.

Apply Shade C on lighter photos.

Background:
Lighter

Avoid sizes smaller than 14 pt. Minimum size: 10 pt.

3.7

Text contrast ratio result.

Values
HEX 4D7684

The application of Power Storm on text may vary depending on the background it is used over. If the background is a photo or a solid dark background, we use Power Storm Shade B. If the background is a photo or a lighter solid background, use Power Storm Shade C.

Please note that specifications for digital environments should be revised properly by considering UX/UI usability.